MARCH-ing on toward saving every drop of Water

At Oasis India, we believe in action that fosters positive change. On World Water Day on March 22nd, we conducted an engaging session in the Peer Boundary community, Bangalore, to raise awareness about the crucial need to conserve water.

The day kicked off with icebreakers and games, setting a lively tone for discussions on water scarcity issues both nationally and within their own communities. We encouraged everyone to take ownership of this vital cause by pledging to save water and become better stewards of our environment.

To empower our participants further, we distributed reusable water bottles, promoting the habit of carrying water wherever they go. By reducing reliance on single-use plastics, we not only conserve water but also reduce plastic pollution.

The highlight of the session was witnessing the creativity of the students as they expressed their solutions to water problems through drawings and artwork. Their innovative ideas inspire us to continue our mission of making India better for women and children.

Together, let's make every drop count!

I pledge to conserve water every day,
Use it wisely, and not waste it away.
I will save every drop I can, every day of the week.

Here is my plan

- 1 I PROMISE TO: TURN OFF THE WATER WHILE BRUSHING MY TEETH / SHAVING.
- 2 I WILL CHECK YOUR TOILET FOR LEAKS.
- 3 I WILL STOP USING THE TOILET AS A WASTEBASKET OR ASHTRAY.
- 4 I PROMISE TO TAKE SHORTER SHOWERS.
- 5 WHILE WASHING DISHES, I WILL NOT LEAVE THE WATER RUNNING FOR RINSING.
- 6 I WILL WATER THE LAWN/GARDEN ONLY WHEN IT NEEDS IT.
- 7 I WILL WASH THE CYCLE/BIKE ONLY IF REQUIRED.
- 8 REMIND FRIENDS AND FAMILY TO SAVE WATER.

Doing my best to make a difference for a sustainable future.
